Featured Story ACORD eLabel Mappings Are Here!

ACORD supports three separate and distinct Property and Casualty standards. Although the three standards contain similar information, they were developed at different times and are not necessarily consistent or aligned. To assist the numerous agents, insurers and solution providers who use ACORD Forms and Standards, ACORD initiated a project to define the relationship between each field on an ACORD form to the corresponding ACORD Data Standards in XML and AL3.

Will Face and Voice Recognition Replace Passwords for Insurance Transactions?

The insurance industry is not known to be on the bleeding edge of technology adoption, yet some in our universe are at least kicking the tires of biometrics in the form of voice recognition and/or face recognition to replace passwords in insurance transactions.

IN CASE YOU MISSED IT

This Month at ACORD

ACE Appoints P&C, L&A, GRLC and AML Certification Committees

The ACORD Certified Expert (ACE) Program has seen substantial developments in the last year. Included in those are the launch of computer-based testing for the ACE Program globally, upgraded training materials that are now available online through our ACORD e-store, and now, to add to the list, the creation of four prestigious Certification Committees, representing each line of business under the ACORD umbrella.
